

Patricia Bell Casey

Patricia Bell Casey serves as the Treasurer for the E. Thurman Walker Foundation. Her desire is to promote and enhance positive relations while promoting a potential cause of growth for our youth and community. Serving as treasurer it is her position to display trust and integrity by displaying and reporting the organizations budget and financial reports -- its constraints and spending habits.

She has served as Administrative Assistant, Office Manager and currently the Executive Administrator of the Antioch Missionary Baptist Church since April 1987, serving three of her four pastors.

Prior to Antioch, Patricia was employed by the City of San Antonio Aviation Department as Office Manager, Building/Ground Lease Liaison and Disadvantage Business Enterprise Liaison Officer.

Her higher education was obtained while attending San Antonio College, Prairie View College and Our Lady of the Lake University.

She serves as Chairman of the Board of Directors of Oak Manor/Montabella Point/Renaissance Village/Vista Verde Apartments of the Prospera Housing Community Services.

And she has been an active member of The Antioch Missionary Baptist Church of San Antonio, Texas since 1965.
